Bauernhaus Unterleming

farm, farmhouse in Angerberg

Following the motto "preserve the old, experience the new" the farmhouse "Unterleming" was renovated with much love and care in fall 2017. The body of the farmhouse, which dates back to the 17th century, was preserved and then refurbished by using new techniques and materials. The entire farmhouse, for example, was insulated with sheep wool. The cosy sitting room with its tiled stove is just a lovely place to spend relaxed, peaceful hours. Only 3 km away are the villages of Mariastein and Angerberg where you find shopping facilities, restaurants and cafes. The farmhouse can be reached by car throughout the year. Pets are welcome after prior request.

One of numerous hiking trails runs right past Unterleming farm. In summer the range of hiking options is wide – from the Adlerweg trail to Buchacker in Angerberg to the Hohe Salve panoramic mountain and to the highest peak in the Kitzbühel Alps, Torhelm mountain. Even those who don't cycle often at home will grow to like this activity ...
